A champion of poetry and education, Yolanda Wisher is Poet Laureate of Philadelphia, chosen for leadership in her discipline and dedication to advancing her art form and the city’s poetry community. She has been a beneficiary of, and a force within, Philadelphia’s poetry scene for the past two decades, promoting poetry as a public, healing, and activist art.

Wisher uses her platform to speak on the African American experience and the complexities of womanhood. The author of Monk Eats an Afro and co-editor of the anthology Peace is a Haiku Song, she is a sought-after teaching artist and consultant who shares her poetry and pedagogy at schools and universities, and leads workshops and residencies with youth, adults, educators, and people in prison and reentry programs. She performs a unique blend of poetry and song with her bands The Quick Fixx and The Afrocaters, and her writings have been featured widely in a variety of media including CBC Radio, Contemporary Black Canvas, GOOD Magazine, Obsidian: Literature & Arts in the African Diaspora, PennSound, The Philadelphia Citizen, The Philadelphia Inquirer, Ploughshares, and PoetryNow. Phi Beta Kappa is a national honorary organization for outstanding undergraduate students of liberal arts and sciences. As the oldest and most exclusive honor society in the country, only 10 percent of colleges have chapters.

Outstanding students from all curricula are eligible for election to Phi Beta Kappa in either the junior or senior year. Membership criteria are established by the local chapter, not by the College. In addition to meeting the requirements of their degree programs, students should demonstrate breadth in their course work and a commitment to liberal learning. More specifically, the chapter takes into account grade point average, advanced level courses outside the student’s major, and the study of mathematics and foreign language. Admission to Phi Beta Kappa is always at the discretion of the chapter and membership is gained only by election. Students invited to join Phi Beta Kappa this spring include:
